Benefits of membership

Membership has great advantages. Even when you're young and don't yet feel an immediate need for job security or information. Our extensive network is available for tips and advice when you're planning your next career move. And if required, our labor lawyer offers support in negotiating individual employment contracts. So don't wait for your first burn-out, or for your company to start reorganizing. Membership fees are low, and, if required, we can supply a certificate for the tax authorities.
